DIARY NOTES

25X1A

DD/S

23 November 1960

1. Jim Garrison told me that he had checked the busses which Stan Grogan reported were being used by the International Cooperation Administration and the Department of State to such an extent that our own people could not get on them. Thus far the check indicates that this will happen only in very isolated cases; however, I asked Jim to make further checks on this and be sure that it is not necessary for us to take some more drastic action.

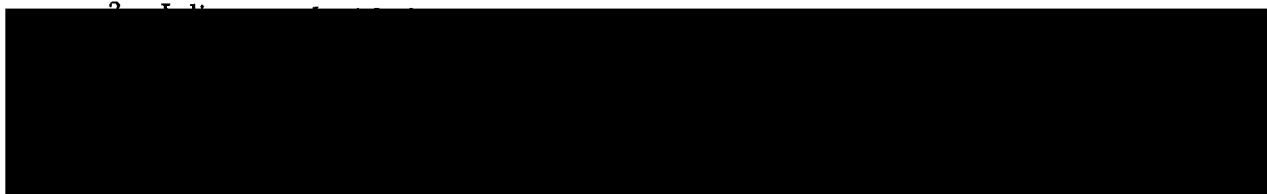

2. Ben Ellington and Bob Macy, Bureau of the Budget, were over to meet with me concerning our Fiscal Year 1962 Budget. They propose a reduction in the Reserve to the [redacted] level and a reduction of [redacted] in our regular operations. (See detailed Memorandum for the Record signed [redacted] on this subject.)
